Coronavirus COVID 19 - This is a new chapter in our story! We are leaving the regularly scheduled events posted on the calendar with an implied question mark behind all of them. Please continue to pray for one another, our fellowshippers, our nation and leaders, the front-line medical personnel caring for the individuals afflicted with the virus, and certainly the families experiencing serious illness or death because of the malady. With the blessed celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus in the near future, we are reminded that our true eternal confidence and hope is anchored in His completed work on the cross. While we (text continues to the right of the 30th).
