| Changes....changes....changes....Again, we come to our 'Anchor of Soul,' Jesus Christ and His finished work for our salvation. The joy of having our relationship to God settled stands in stark contrast to the daily changes and insecurities of life as we know it. We rest in His daily guidance, protection, and provision in the 'stuff of life.' These times underscore both our need for God and for one another. It is encouraging to know a God who is enough in every situation. We are also deeply grateful for the fellow pilgrims with who we travel. "How can I help you?" "How can I pray for you?" are questions we love to hear and questions we should be asking. In times like these, thank you for praying that the ministry of Elim will flourish for the glory of God. - That unsaved will be exposed to the Good News of Jesus. - That together we will grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior. (2 Peter 3:18). - That in the place of life we will reflect the light of Christ to folks around us. (Matthew 5:16). | | | | | | 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Those with major life changes because of physical changes or illness. 1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ |
